

WEST COVERED WITH SNOW-AS STRIKE CAUSES COAL SHORTAGE

Jenkins raises a new issue that Jenkins made contradictory statements to the trial judge and this, officials said, must be investigated.

Instructions will go forward to the Embassy at Mexico City to-day to investigate this charge and also obtain copies of the indictment and charges against the Consul Agent.

Administration officials indicated that the negotiations with Mexico would not be prolonged if unsatisfactory, that the American Government had decided upon a course of action and was prepared to carry it out should that become necessary.

Another statement said a new note demanding details of the charges against Jenkins would be sent to the Mexican Government to-day.

The State Department, it was said, would demand the evidence on which the Mexican Government bases its charge that Jenkins falsified judicial statements, as alleged in the reply to the first American note, which demanded his immediate release. According to the Mexican reply, the charge of falsifying statements, and not the charge of connivance with the bandits who captured and held him for ransom, is the main ground for Jenkins's imprisonment.

The State Department is now looking up the laws of Mexico in the belief the new Mexican Constitution provides specifically that all cases against foreign diplomats and consular officers are within the jurisdiction only of the Mexican Federal Courts. This would make illegal the arrest of Jenkins.

Yaquis Behead Six Chinese on Mexican Ranches.

MONTREZUMA, SONORA, Mex., Nov. 28.—A Yaqui military command reported to-day that during a raid by Yaqui Indians on Chinese ranches south of here yesterday, the Yaquis killed and beheaded six Orientals, after stealing everything of value and driving off all the livestock in the vicinity.

Eleven Mexican Indians Executed After a Raid.

AGUA PRIETA, SONORA, Mex., Nov. 28.—A Yaqui Chief named Oro and ten followers were executed Wednesday at Tumia, north of Magdalena, in this State, after the Indians had made a raid on several small ranches in the vicinity, according to information received by military authorities here.

GERMAN MONARCHISTS BACK VON HINDENBURG

Effort of Allies to Extradite Him for Trial Might Lead to Uprising.

BERLIN, Nov. 28.—Any attempt by the Allies to extradite Field Marshal von Hindenburg for trial would be the signal for a "monarchist or nationalist coup," a prominent member of the Reichstag said to-day.

The monarchists, who recently have been making a strong effort to crystallize all reactionary elements in Germany around von Hindenburg and General Ludendorff, will adopt a "come and get him" attitude if the Allies decide von Hindenburg must be punished, this official said.

The reactionaries now are straining every effort to bring about a "Hindenburg-for-president" boom, he pointed out, admitting that while von Hindenburg may be considered a criminal by the Allies, he still is Germany's popular hero.

TANK CHURCHILL'S IDEA.

British Committee Credits War Minister, Gives Others Prizes.

LONDON, Nov. 28.—"It was primarily due to the receptivity, courage and driving force of Winston Spencer Churchill that the general idea to use such an instrument of warfare as the tank was developed into present shape," was said in the report issued to-day by the committee which investigated the numerous rival claims to credit for inventing the tank.

But it was said in the report that as the War Minister considered a servant of the state he is not entitled to any award. The report then deals with men who made valuable contributions toward perfecting the tank, awarding some of them sums of 500 or 1,000 pounds each, the principal award, amounting to 15,000 pounds, being divided.

BREAK STRIKE STRONGHOLD.

Thousand Enter Steel Mill Through Best Picketed Gate.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Nov. 28.—Nearly a thousand men to-day entered the Center Street gate of the Youngstown Steel and Tube Company, according to observers.

That mill entrance has been regarded as the stronghold of the steel strikers here and has been the most heavily picketed. Steel plant officials maintain that coal shortage, not labor scarcity, is preventing opening of more departments.

Sisters Die From Gas After Attending Dance.

BOSTON, Nov. 28.—Misses Theresa and May Liscouski, sisters, were asphyxiated while they slept to-day. The girls had been to a dance last night and, returning late, it is believed, neglected in their haste to shut off the gas cock.

$1,000,000 FIRE IN BALTIMORE; FIREMEN INJURED

BALTIMORE, Nov. 28.—The most disastrous fire in Baltimore since that of 1904 started a few minutes before last midnight in McCoy's Hall, one of the old Johns Hopkins University buildings. It spread so quickly that at an early hour to-day every building in the square bounded by Howard, Ross, Monument and Eutaw Streets had either been wrecked or damaged.

A number of rescues were made by firemen, including a blind girl, who was taken from a third story, and several families.

High winds swept embers a dozen blocks. The roofs and awnings of Lexington Market were afire, in a number of places and on the roofs of big department stores forces of employees stamped out incipient blazes.

A rough estimate placed the damage as high as $1,000,000. Among the more important buildings burned were McCoy Hall, Topographical Survey Building, Old Biological Laboratory, Levering Hall and Chemical Laboratory.

McCoy Hall had been used last summer by attaches of the Edgewood Arsenal, but Major Stephen J. Delaney, in command of the arsenal, said there were no Government chemicals there now.

The blaze was under control early to-day. Among other buildings damaged were: M. L. Bloom & Co., the Enterprise Steam and Hot Water Heating Company, Eutaw Motor Sales Company, Service Print Shop, William Dunnett Plumbing Company, J. J. Neck, tailor; Old Virginia Antique Company and Old Hopkins Gymnasium.

Nine firemen were injured seriously, but no loss of life was reported.

$50,000 TAKEN BY ROBBER OF PRODUCE DEALER NEAR HOME

and then taken to the rogues' gallery to ascertain whether they could identify any of the quartet. The other chauffeurs and a number of the help in the apartment house were also examined.

Inspector Patrol also took a hand in the investigation. One of the first things he did was to look for finger prints in the Alexander car, but the result of his examination was not made public.

The robbers are described as men between twenty-five and thirty years old, well dressed and each wearing a cap and a long overcoat.

When the machine was examined it was found that a hole about two inches square had been jabbed into the body of the tonneau, beside the rear seat. The mudguards were bent. It was figured that the robbers had narrowly averted a serious smash-up.

As the robbers drove away Mr. Alexander saw a chauffeur driving a yellow Cadillac car and yelled at him: "They have robbed me of $50,000. If you catch them I'll give you $5,000."

The chauffeur gave pursuit, but was distanced when the robbers got into Central Park.

GARFIELD TO TAKE CHARGE OF THE MINES GOVERNMENT SEIZES

declared neither the protestation of the miners against the 14 per cent wage advance nor the insistence of the operators that they be permitted to charge a higher price for coal would induce him to alter his decision that a 14 per cent increase was the amount necessary to bring the miners' wages up to the level of living costs and that the operators could pay this advance without increasing prices to the public.

OPERATORS AND UNION OFFICIALS TO LEAVE WASHINGTON. A number of operators and union officials remained in Washington to-day, but all expected to leave for their homes to-night. John L. Lewis, acting president of the United Mine Workers of America conferred during the morning with Secretary Wilson, but refused to talk about it. He also arranged an interview with President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor.

Lewis maintained the same attitude toward the situation that he had demonstrated during the weeks of discussion.

"Officially I don't know that a coal strike is on," he said, "but the Government could get coal production resumed in this country if Secretary Wilson's proposal to give the men a $1.60 per cent increase had been enforced."

Consumption of coal is less than production despite the strike, according to Government reports which show that yesterday production was 33 per cent, and consumption about 25 per cent, normal.

The Railroad Administration is using less coal. No freight trains have as yet been taken from their regular schedules, it was announced to-day at the office of Rail Director Hines. Hines has no figures on passenger trains eliminated, but the total is estimated to be less than 300.

VOLUNTEERS TO RUN MINES IN KANSAS; STUDENTS ENROLL

Governor Issues Call and Hundreds Promptly Respond to Avert Coal Famine.

TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 28.—Kansas to-day began the enrollment of volunteers to dig coal, and, according to State officials, the appeal of Gov. Allen for men was being readily answered. The Governor estimated about 700 men had been accepted for service at the four recruiting offices, established in the mining districts of the State.

From Lawrence came word that students of the University of Kansas had made arrangements to enter the mines and that it was expected credits in their university work would be given those who joined the force of coal diggers.

State Labor Commissioner Crawford took up with railroad officials the matter of transporting men from adjoining States who have applied for work in the coal mines.

CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—Cold weather with snow and sleet storms to-day spread over the Middle West and Southwest and rendered more critical the fuel situation brought about by the strike of bituminous coal miners who have been idle four weeks. In many small cities and towns the coal shortage was acute, with actual suffering in prospect in some.

Snow ranging in depth from one inch to two feet covers most of the country between the Mississippi River and the Sierra Nevada Mountains, and from Canada to Northern Texas, with low temperatures prevailing throughout the area. A slight snowfall occurred in Northern Illinois, Indiana and far east as Toledo, O.

while word came that some snow fell in Los Angeles, Cal., and that two inches of snow covered the ground at the aviation field near Riverside, Cal.

In the large producing coal fields of Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia the miners apparently were firm in their determination not to return to work until some wage adjustment was agreed upon. In fact, some district officials of the United Mine Workers in West Virginia predicted that many men who had returned to work would walk out again to-day. Some operators in that State, however, asserted that production to-day would be increased.

Word came to-day from Pittsburgh that miners and officials of the Miners' Union in Central and Western Pennsylvania said that the sold amount of $2,000 in Districts Nos. 2 and 5, United Mine Workers, would stand behind Acting President Lewis in his refusal to accept the wage increase of 14 per cent offered by Dr. Garfield.

In the Central Pennsylvania fields the miners who had returned to work announced that they would refuse to work to-day.

The most drastic conservation measures announced by any of the larger cities to-day had been ordered into effect at Kansas City, Mo., next Sunday. Schools, theatres and all places of amusement were ordered closed. The least essential manufacturing plants will be closed immediately, and others will be listed in the order of importance.

In Chicago to-day there were renewed reports that train schedules were to be curtailed further, but there was no confirmation from Walker D. Hines, Director General of Railroads.

The conference of Governors which Gov. Gardner said he would call, provided the Government failed to act, probably would be held at St. Louis, Chicago or Indianapolis.

"Unfortunately," he says, "our own economic situation is so difficult that it will not be possible to assist as thoroughly as we should like."

LADY ASTOR WINS SEAT IN COMMONS BY 4,064 MAJORITY

constituency on a speech-making tour this afternoon and evening, "win or lose."

Lady Astor, who was formerly Miss Nannie Langhorne of Virginia, is the mother of six children, a fact of which she boasted on one occasion during her canvass.

Lady Astor is the first woman to be elected to the British Commons. Lady Astor gave out the following statement:

"Although I cannot say 'the best man won,' I can say that the best policy won. There are certain people who seem to forget what the fight for the last five years has been about. It was for right, not might, and for fair play in the widest sense."

"There is a new spirit, both in public and in private life, which is struggling to get through. By this I mean the spirit of citizenship and service which was brought out by the war. I don't mean that we have got all that is best in Government, but I do believe that a Government which says, 'Let us all unite together for the national good' has a better spirit than the old Liberal party that says, 'Let us get back to party lines,' or the Socialists, who are trying to divide the world into classes."

"We must not divide, but unite. The Labor Party of England is more divided in thought than any other party. The right in all parties should and will unite. We have been asked to give up many of our cherished rights, but surely we who have seen 900,000 men give up their all should be willing to give up whatever is keeping us and the nation from reconstruction in the new spirit."

"I believe that the great bulk of the people is willing and want to do what is right, but I also believe that the spirit of the war profiteer and hoarder, if they have their way, would make the country not the home of heroes, but a den of thieves."

"The profiteer took advantage of the patriot during the war and the Bolshevik revolution is trying to take advantage of the broken and unsettled patriot now that the war is over. Neither is right, but neither represents the great heart desire of the British Nation. Both must be fought and defeated."

Knew Sister Would Win, Says Mrs. C. D. Gibson. "It's great! But we all knew she'd win," said Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson to-day in commenting on the election of her sister, Lady Nancy Astor, to the British House of Commons.

"I am confident, too, that she will make just as great a success of this as she has of everything she has ever undertaken in life," Mrs. Gibson continued. Mrs. Gibson expects to go to England after Christmas to visit Lady Astor.
